Re: Calendar Highlights for 2010-11

J X Wilson School will have a modified balanced school year. School will start and end a week early and breaks will be extended or added during the school year to allow for 3 intersession weeks of instruction for struggling or at risk students. The intersessions will be held in a format similar to summer school and the school will be minimally staffed to accommodate the morning program.

In addition, the school year has been shortened by 5 furlough days and will be 175 days in length.

1st Day of School	Monday, August 9
